

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEW MEXICO

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff.

vs.

ASHLEY THOMPSON

Defendant.

Case No. 1:22-CR-1520-003-JB

UNOPPOSED MOTION TO CONTINUE SENTENCING

COMES NOW, Defendant, Ashley Thompson, by and through undersigned counsel, respectfully requests this Honorable Court continue the sentencing in this matter currently set for January 6, 2025 at 9:30 a.m., and in support thereof states the follows:

1. Defendant is currently at Oxford House in Las Cruces and been attending NMSU. Defendant obtained B's in her classes this semester, is enrolled next semester, working, and would like the opportunity to continue to demonstrate her progress and sobriety prior to sentencing.
2. The parties in this case respectfully request a sixty-day continuance date from the January 6, 2025 setting.
3. The Defendant is not in custody.
4. The instant motion comprises Ms. Thompson's third request to continue the sentencing.
5. This request for a continuance is not based on general congestion of the Court's calendar, or lack of diligent preparation on the part of the attorney for the defendant.

As a result, the ends of justice served by continuing the sentencing in this matter outweigh the best interest of the public and the parties.

6. Assistant United States Attorney, Timothy Trembley was contacted in regard to this request and does not oppose the relief requested.

WHEREFORE, Defendant, Ashley Thompson, respectfully requests that the Court enter an order continuing the sentencing herein set for January 6, 2025, find that the ends of justice are served by the granting of the continuance and outweigh the best interest of the public and the parties, and reset the sentencing in approximately 60 days from January 6, 2025.

Respectfully submitted,
